Mr. George Hoeferlin
Rensselaer, Indiana

Dear Sir:

I should have written you sooner but just couldn't make up my mind to give up teaching until recently, and did not want to give up teaching for you if I aimed to teach next year. I am working in a defense plant in Indianapolis where they make army trucks and tanks, and like the work fine.

I hope you find someone that will be satisfactory as that is a very nice community. The teachers and most of the people are very nice to work with, and I surely did enjoy working at South Barkley. I hesitated notifying you as I had not made up my mind until I heard from you and realized it was necessary for you to know.

We are both well and Mrs. Etienne is in college here at Danville.

If you are ever down this way we would be very happy to have you drop in on us.

Respectfully,

Amos Etienne
